Terrible State of Affairs in Louisiana—Gov. Warmouth Makes Requisition for Troops—Treasury Department Regulations Concerning Drawback Allowance—The Resignation of Mr. Rollins, of the Revenue Department.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, August 6, 1868.

LOUISIANA AFFAIRS—APPEAL FOR TROOPS.

Gov. Warmoth's official requisition on the President for forces, with which to secure peace in Louisiana, was presented yesterday by Lieut. Col. John F. Deane, of his staff. Gov. Warmoth encloses several letters from citizens and officers, setting forth the horrible outrages that are daily being perpetrated in portions of the State. He says that in many Parishes there exists no protection for the citizens in the courts, men are shot down on the roads and at their homes without any steps being taken to bring the offenders to justice. The Judge of the Twelfth Judicial district refuses to go to the Parish of Franklin without a force is sent to protect him. The Sheriff of State Parish, a Democrat, has resigned, confessing his inability to make arrests. Prominent Union men in the Parish of Caddo write that their homes are beset by desperadoes, and their lives have thus far been saved only by armed men, who voluntered to guard them. Mr. Hudspeth, District Attorney for the Eighth District, whose letter is enclosed, says men and women and children have recently been murdered in the Parish of St. Landry, by bands of armed men, who remained unmolested. The Governor has no doubt but that a hundred and fifty men have been murdered in Louisana in the last month and a half, and that there seems to be a settled determination by the rebels either to kill or drive away Union white men and leading colored men, so as to be able to terrify the masses of the colored people into voting as they shall dictate.

A secret organization, founded for the purpose of keeping colored men in a condition of inferiority, pervades the State. It designs to precipitate a conflict between the two races. There are military branches of this secret organization on foot in the city of New Orleans. They drill openly in the streets at night, and it is easily to be seen that the mob that threatened the Legislature some weeks since were only prevented from re-enacting the scenes of 1866, by the presence of United States troops. It was the deliberate intention of this organization to assassinate the Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives for having decided questions in a manner obnoxious to them. In conclusion, the Governor says he sincerely believes that a bloody revolution is meditated and he asks two regiments of cavalry, a regiment of infantry and a battery of artillery, to enable him to repress violence, arrest criminals, and protect the officers of the law. He believes a few examples of condign punishment would secure peace in the state as soon as the political campaign is over.

DRAWBACK REGULATIONS.

Regulations for the allowance of drawback on alcohol or rum, under the provisions of the act imposing a tax on distilled spirits and tobacco, approved July 20, were issued from the Treasury Department this morning. It is announced that the terms of drawback are limited by the terms of the law to alcohol and rum, and no drawback is to be allowed except upon alcohol and rum as known in commerce. No drawback will be allowed upon alcohol of a less degree of power than eighty degrees by the hydrometer or instrument for ascertaining the proof of liquors under the revenue and collection laws of the United States pertaining to customers. All exportations of such alcohol to be entitled to drawback must be in quantities not less than two thousand gallons and in casks containing not less than thirty guage or wine gallons of alcohol. Rum can only be exported with the privilege of drawback in quantities not less than two thousand proof gallons in casks containing not less than thirty gauge or wine wine gallons, and drawback will be allowed only on the basis and number of proof gallons actually exported. To entitle an exporter to an allowance of drawback of taxes paid upon alcohol or rum, he must at least six hours previous to the time for inspecting, gauging and loading casks for export on which he shall desire to claim, give to the Collector of Customs for the port of entry in which such exportation is to be made an application in duplicate, setting forth his intention to export the articles described therein, specifying the whole number of casks, the marks and several numbers thereon, the kind of spirits, whether alcohol the same as known in commerce, the number of the gauge or wine gallons, the number of proof gallons claimed to be contained in each cask and the amount of tax paid thereon; and setting forth his intention to export the same, and the name of the vessel at which the same is to be inspected and gauged, and the port to which the same is to be exported. Forms for the transaction of business in accordance with the instructions above given are contained in the regulations, as well as the forms of the order for examination and shipment by custom inspectors and guagers and inspectors' certificates. And if the merchandize be exported bp any person other than the distiller by whom the tax was paid, the exporter shall nle with the entry a duplicate invoice of bills of purchase as evidence of ownership, one copy of the same to be annexed to the copy of entry, with the bill of lading duly signed by the master of the vessel, to be retained by the Collector, and another copy of the invoice or bill of purchase when the shipment is completed is to be transmitted by the Collector of Customs of the port to the Secretary of the Treasury. The exporter shall also give bond in duplicate to the United States, with at least two sureties satisfactory to the Collector of Customs, conditioned that the principal named in said bond will export the spirits as specified in said entry to the port mentioned and designated in said entry, and that the same shall not be landed within the jurisdiction of the United States; the penal sum named in the bond shall be equal to less than double the amount of drawback claimed on such alcohol or rum.

The following memorandum concludes the regulations: If the claim for drawback is allowed, a draft for the amount found due will be forwarded from the Treasury Department. Exporters, to avoid miscarriage or delay in receiving their drafts, should be particular to give their postoffice address in full on the application. For allowance of drawbacks for the discharge and cancellation of the export bond the same certificate and other evidence will be required as in the case of lading on bonds for export of imported merchandise exported from the United States under the laws and regulations made in pursuance thereof appertaining to the customs. The entries and bonds are to be numbered in consecutive order from number one upwards, and the other papers in each respective case to have corresponding numbers. The same fees and charges are to be collected in like manner upon exports of alcohol and rum for allowance of drawback as are chargeable to exporters for like service in the Custom House in cases of exports of imported merchandise. In case of failure on the part of the exporters to comply in all respects with the requirements of the law, and the regulations made in pursuance thereof, in matters of application for drawbacks of alcohol and rum under the act of July 20th, 1868, the claim for drawback will be disallowed. Proof by affidavit will not be received to supply deficiencies of official or record evidence to substantiate claims, nor will drawbacks be allowed for taxes claimed to have been paid on alcohol or rum exported in casks not stamped or upon which the name of the distiller, the district, date of payment of tax and number of proof gallons has not been cut or burned thereon, as required by the twenty-fifth and fifty-sixth sections of the act of July 20th, 1868.

The foregoing regulations will be in force and take effect immediately.

MR. ROLLINS' RESIGNATION.

There has been considerable excitement to-day in various circles relative to the acceptance by the President of the resignation of Mr. Rollins, of the Internal Revenue Department, and much anxiety has prevailed with regard to the rumored appointment of a new Commissioner. It was reported this afternoon that Mr. Johnson had designated a Commissioner ad interim, but upon inquiry it is ascertained that so far there has been no appointment, and in all probability will not be for two or three days, if so soon. The belief is expressed that the Attorney General will not give his opinion as to whether under the law the office is now vacant, and that until such opinion is stated there will be no further action by the President. Mr. Rollins is still absent from Washington and Deputy Commissioner Harlan is in charge of the office. Different impressions prevail whether Mr. Rollins will retire in case the Attorney General officially pronounces the office vacant.

THE PRESIDENT AND LOUISIANA.

An official interview between President Johnson and Col. Deane, of Louisiana, member of Governor Warmoth's staff, was pleasant and conciliatory, the President during the interview showing no disposition to question the legitimacy of the Government of Louisiana, which furnished credentials to Col. Deane. Without giving Gov. Warmoth's messenger any official assurances, the President expressed the opinion that the course he pursued in regard to Tennessee would be adopted in Louisiana and other Southern States, namely, that upon proper application the Federal troops, of which there are a sufficient number in the South, would be used under Federal orders for suppression of disorder. The documents presented by Col. Deane were referred to the War Department, and the matter remains in abeyance until Gen. Schofield returns on Saturday.

MILITARY MATTERS.

General Canby is expected to arrive here about the last of this week, or first of next, and enter immediately upon the discharge of his duties as commander of this Department. General Emory, the present commander of the Department, will remain in this city, he being a member of the Board to revise cavalry tactics, now in session here.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Attorney General Evarts returned this morning from his visit to New York and had an early interview with the President. Secretary McCulloch and Mr. Evarts also had an interview this afternoon.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

Major General Howard has issued a circular promulgating the act of Congress relating to the Freedmen's Bureau, which was passed over the President's veto.

CUSTOMS.

The receipts of customs from July 20th to July 31st, inclusive, were $2,793,764.

WASHINGTON TOPICS AND GOSSIP.

At the Cabinet meeting to-day the President will submit the question of granting a sufficient force of regular troops to maintain order in Louisiana, as requested. It is probable that the request will be denied, and troops will be allowed as needed under requisition from General Buchanan.

Mr. Johnson has accepted the resignation of Commissioner Rollins, unconditionally, and the latter has been advised by his friends to turn over his office to his successor as soon as he is appointed.

Baron De Stoeckel, the Russian Minister, denies having delivered, and the President says he has not received, the congratulatory letter from the Czar to Mr. Johnson on his escape from impeachment. Notwithstanding this, it is positively asserted, by those who ought to know, that such a letter was presented by Baron De Stoeckel to the President.

President Johnson will not make his Eastern tour until the close of the month, owing to a pressure of business. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Senator Patterson, his daughter.

Mr. A. D. Colly, the only Union member of the Texas State Senate during the Throckmorton administration, was recently shot while standing at the door of his house by a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

The good effects of the new tax law is shown in the large increase of internal revenue receipts. Wednesday nearly a million of dollars was collected, and yesterday the receipts were nearly equal to that amount.

Alexander Cummings, the straw hat and linen coat man, wants to be either Commissioner or District Revenue Collector at Sitka, or Supervisor of Internal Revenue of Pennsylvania, and he does not care which. Mr. Rollins does not like him. Mr. McCulloch makes fun of the straw hat idea, and the President thinks Cummings too keen a financier and politician to have much swing.

—A Washington dispatch states that it is ascertained the instructions of Reverdy Johnson were not particularly strong regarding the Alabama claims. He was merely directed to pursue the same course as his predecessor on that question, but was more fully instructed regarding the American doctrine of expatriation. It is believed that the President and Secretary Seward authorized him to negotiate a treaty as to the rights of naturalized citizens, similar to that lately agreed upon between Prussia and the United States.

Georgia Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, GA., August 6.—In the election of State officers to-day by the Legislature, the entire Republican ticket was chosen.

A bill was presented in the Legislature to-day for the election of municipal authorities for Augusta to fill the vacancies caused by the relief of the present military appointees.

In the Senate the majority report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections was adopted, 22 to 18. The majority report is to the effect that by the laws of Georgia alone none of the elections were legally held. The Committee are constrained to think that the military tribunals are alone competent to decide upon military orders. The present Legislature, elected under a state of things which has passed away, was organized and placed in possession of civil power at the opening of the session, and the Committee are of opinion that the wisest course would be to consider the order of General Meade declaring the election a legal one final and conclusive as to the eligibility of members and all other questions. In view of all the circumstances they propose a resolution that general order No. 90, from General Meade, in relation to persons elected to the Senate, be declared and held conclusive as to the rights of persons named to their seats.

Louisiana Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLANS, August 6.—Two more Democratic members of the House were unseated to-day, and their Radical opponents installed in their places by votes of 43 to 25. The seats of these ousted members were originally contested on the ground of ineligibility, but that was abandoned and the charge of fraud substituted. Among the published evidence in the cases are two affidavits purporting to show that the Radical contestants committed greater frauds than are charged against the Democrats.

The presiding officers of the Democratic clubs here denounce the statements that their organizations, professing to be political, are really military, as unmitigated falsehoods.

An immense crowd gathered in Lafayette Square to-night to hear Willis Rollins, colored Democrat, who has lately become popular as an orator. One of the speakers had addressed the crowd, and Mr. Rollins had just mounted the stand for the same purpose, when the platform gave way and four policemen and two other persons were injured, the latter seriously. No lives were lost.

Canadian Ministers at Halifax.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HALIFAX, August 6.—So far the Canadian Ministers have received attentions from the Lieut. Governor, Admiral and private individuals, but no public demonstration has been made. But little is known concerning the result of the mission. Rumor says, however, that Mr. Howe and other Dominion members accept the situation. Fifty-one members of the Dominion Assembly and ten of the Legislative Council have been holding a Convention the past three days. The proceedings are said to have been very harmonious. A Committee of seventeen was appointed, including the Executive Council, with Mr. Howe as Chairman, to consider the best means in the present emergency for securing the repeal. The Convention then adjourned to Friday.

The Local Parliament met at noon to-day, remained in session five minutes, and then adjourned till Monday, to give the Convention time to complete its labor.

Alabama Legislature.

In the House the Senate bill removing all political disabilities of citizens of the State was called up and postponed until to-morrow.

CINCINNATI.

Four Steamboats and a Barge Burned—Loss $100,000.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, August 6.—This morning a fire broke out in the engine room of the steamer Delaware and soon communicated to the Potomac lying alongside. From the Potomac the flames spread to the Pine Grove and Ezra Porter, and to a barge lying at the Porter's stern. The total loss is about one hundred thousand dollars. The Porter was owned at Pittsburgh, valued at forty-eight thousand and insured for thirty-two thousand in Pittsburgh offices. The Potomac was valued at thirty-two thousand, and insured for eighteen thousand in Cincinnati offices. The Pine Grove was owned by the Nashville Packet Company, was valued at twelve thousand and insured for nine thousand in Cincinnati. The Delaware was owned at Pittsburgh, valued at twelve thousand and insured in Pittsburgh offices. The barge destroyed was valued at $1,800; insured for $1,500. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The boats were laying up at the time.

Man and Woman Tarred and Feathered

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, MASS., August 6.—At Chesterfield, Mass., a man named Hiram Pittsinger, who is said to have kept a women as a kitchen servant, and between them to have abused his wife so that she was compelled to leave him last month, was visited a night or two since by about thirty men in disguise, and some women also, and ordered to surrender. He resisted, and knocked one of the assailants down, but was soon overpowered. Pittsinger and his housemaid were then marched to the house of his brother, near which the unfortunate pair were stripped of their clothing, tarred and feathered, and ridden on a rail about half a mile. Pledges were made not to divulge the names of those engaged in the riotous proceedings, to remove his servant from town within forty-eight hours, and to make a confession of his guilt to his wife. If this was not done a worse visitation was to follow.

Explosion of a Steamboat Boiler.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, August 6.—The tug Nettie, belonging to Bigley & Millersh, while towing some barges, exploded a boiler some three miles up the river this afternoon, carrying away the forward part of the caboose and pilot house, and severely scalding a man named Williams, an engineer. The regular engineer and fireman had just stepped out of the engine room when the explosion occurred, and they, together with the pilot, narrowly escaped death.

Literary Affairs at Perryopolis—An Interesting Occasion.

The beautiful and picturesque village of Perryopolis, nestling among the majestic hills and sublime scenery of Fayette county, about forty-five miles above Pittsburgh, on the Connellsville railroad, was startled out of its usual quiet and for a season made to quiver with excitement by a literary and musical entertainment, which took place there a few evenings since. The affair was under the immediate supervision of Messrs. Henry and Baugh, and was held for the benefit of the Sunday School connected with the Church in which it took place. For weeks preparations for the event had been going on, and when the time arrived, it was made the occasion for a grand outpouring of the inhabitants, old and young, so that eight o'clock, the hour appointed for the commencement of the exercises, found the building crowded almost to suffocation with the beauty, fashion and intelligence of the vicinity, all clothed somewhat after the style of the man in ancient time, who fared sumptuously every day. The programme, occupying over two hours in its rehearsal, was of a varied and interesting character, consisting of vocal and instrumental musical selections, declamations, dialogues, readings and tableaux, all of which were rendered in a manner that reflected great credit on the training of the performers, and if applause is any criterion, were highly appreciated by the audience. Among so many performers of a first-class order it is almost impossble to single out any without doing injustice to the remainder, but we cannot refrain from noticing the vocal and instrumental exercises of the Misses Townsend and Martin, which were especially well done, the audience manifesting their appreciation of them in rounds of applause. In the dramatic line, by common consent the meed of praise was awarded to Mr. Lee S. Smith, a well-known Pittsburgh amateur, who was sojourning in the vicinity, and had kindly consented to assist in the entertainment. In the "Regular Fix" Mr. Smith made a great hit, representing in life-like reality the character which he assumed, the audience not failing to acknowledge, in an emphatic manner, their opinion of the performance. At intervals a brass band discoursed sweet melody, which formed quite an additional feature in the exercises, and served in an agreeable manner to relieve the tedium of waiting between the performances. Time and space, however, would both fail in mentioning in detail all the attractions of the occasion. Suffice it to say, that when the curtain gracefully fell on the closing tableaux, in which the entire company of performers joined, and the echo of the last round of applause had died away, all felt that the affair had fully equaled the highest expectations of the most sanguine, and as they slowly dispersed homeward spectators and performers congratulated themselves on having participated in an occasion which would hereafter mark an epoch in Perryopolis village life.

It will be seen that, in the main, wages in Philadelphia are lower than here. But it is a fact that mechanics live far more comfortably in Philadelphia than in New York. Philadelphia has hundreds of acres of ground covered with small neat houses, which are rented at low rates, and inhabited by the same class of people who are here compelled to live in tenement houses. Philadelphia has well built and well conducted markets; New York has only a parcel of filthy sheds. There are other advantages which make life in Philadelphia to workingmen and their families far more pleasant than in New York.

Horrible and Fatal Accident in Putnam County, Indiana.

On Tuesday morning last, as we learn from the Greencastle (Ind.) Banner, a terrible accident took place at Dexter's saw mill, four miles west of Greencastle. Mr. Dexter and his assistant, Franklin Peters, had placed a large log on the carriage, and were cutting it down with axes so that it would pass under the upper saw, which was running at about one-half the usual speed, and in his hurry he lost his footing and fell with his back against it. The saw entered between the shoulders, cutting the spinal column in two, and then passed down the entire length of the body, cutting off the ribs and flesh. Death was instantaneous, and the body fell forward on the face, spreading apart about four or five inches on the back, so that the lungs, liver, heart and other internal organs could be distinctly seen.

Singular and Fatal Casualty—The R. C. Bishop Spalding, of Kentucky, Burned.

A Louisville dispatch of the 4th says: About twelve o'clock last night the mosquito bar over the bed in which Bishop B. J. Spalding, of the Catholic Church, was sleeping, accidentally caught fire. In trying to extinguish the flames his clothes ignited, and before assistance could reach him he was very seriously burned, from the effect of which he died this evening. Bishop Spalding has for a number of years been connected with the Catholic Church in this city, and his sudden death has cast a gloom over the whole city.

A WATCHMAKER of Paris possesses a wonderful watch valued at $4,000. During the late International exhibition the idea occurred to him to offer it for sale to the Sultan, who has an inclination for expensive jewelry, but although the royal Secretary admired it, he assured the dealer that his Majesty would not purchase, having already a watch that gave him entire satisfaction, and to prove his assertion fetched it. What was the jeweler's surprise to find that the watch was mounted on a crystal about the size of a silver dollar and a finger thick, having a value of at least $200,000.

—The Treasury regulations for allowance of drawback on alcohol and rum were issued on Thursday and go into effect immediately. The law is construed to limit the drawback to alcohol of full proof, eighty degrees by hydrometer, and to pure rum, fermented from sugar, molasses, or other product of sugar cane, with privilege of drawback only when exported in quantities not less than two thousand gallons.

KISS ME BEFORE YOU GO.

Your way lies over the hill-side,
Out in rain and sleet,
Out in the world's wild turmoil,
Where hustle and business meet;
But mine by the noiseless fireside,
Where the fanciful embers glow
With a changeful life-like motion:
Kiss me before you go.

My quiet way will be haunted
With visions none others can see,
Glances more precious than diamonds,
Smiles full of meaning to me;
The sound of a welcome footstep,
A whisper thrillingly low,
Ah, thought will clasp memory closely,
Kiss me before you go.

For this world is full of mischances,
And one of tho e chances may fall,
That we two ne'er again in the firelight
Make one shadow upon the wall,
Oh then, once more in the parting—
Alas! that it must be so—
Leave me a fond benediction:
Kiss me before you go.

—All Northern Europe is languishing under the unexampled heat of the present summer. During the discussion in the French Chamber on July 20, the heat was such that the floor had to be sprinkled with vinegar, and in spite of this precaution, Gen. Meslin, 82 years of age, who was decorated on the field at Waterloo, fainted and was carried out.

—The Parisian police confiscated, recently, a brochure compiled exclusively from the writings of the Emperor Napoleon. Great was the mortification of the police when they found out that they had been made the victim of a very clever hoax.

—The Chicago Sorosis, or Women's Club, has been started with a special object; to find out and put into practice the best methods of reforming fallen women. When the women club together for objects of this sort, we honor them, for we know that much good will be done, but as for the New York Sorosis, it is an excellent thing to laugh at and a good thing to put down.

—The family of the murdered Ashburne are in totally destitute condition. When the Ku Klux Klan murdered the Colonel they also robbed his family of their support, and they are now homeless and quite penniless, and some neighboring Unionist has written a letter to the Cincinnati Commercial, calling the attention of benevolent people to the fact, and asking that some relief be sent to Mrs. Ashburne, who is described as being in every way a worthy woman.

—The wool-growers have been having a great time in Chicago. They have an exhibition, some speeches, some dinner and a high old time in the evening. We are afraid the wool men are becoming tainted with affectation, or perhaps they have grown proud, "at least English is by no means good enough for them, and they call their show "The Great Western Wool Exposition." This last word is supposed to be French in that form of use, and therefore very much better than English. Evidently a French beggar is very much better than an American of higher grade—a wool grower for instance. It seems that it is very much better to speak French than English, and if you can't speak French, break into your English with all the French words you know, for even a macaronic language is more fashionable than plain Anglo-Saxon. To be sure exposition is an English word too, but used according to Webster it would make nonsense in this connection.

The Drought in Europe.

The telegraph informs us that the reports in England of the state of the crops for the week ending last Saturday, are highly favorable, from which it may be inferred that the great drought which extended over the entire Eingdom has at last terminated. Reports of drought in Germany, parts of Spain and of France, have also reached us, but its character appears to have been less serious. The Manchester Guardian, of the 13th July, states that upon the considerable water-shed of which Manchester was part, rain had not fallen, excepting on three days, for one hundred and four days, and then so slightly as to be instantly absorbed by the parched earth, so that none of it had reached the reservoir for the supply of water. As the telegraphic report announcing good weather was dated the 20th, it may be supposed that the whole duration of the drought was 112 or 114 days, and that it embraced that portion of the year—April, May, June and July, to say the 22d, most essential to all spring crops. It appeared that wheat alone had suffered but little, which could be affirmed only of what had grown on heavy or rich soils.

The drought—spoken of as being the most extraordinary which had prevailed in England since 1798—is attributed to influences proceeding rather from Polar than from Equatorial regions, and being of a general character, has probably lapped over upon the western portion of the Continent of Europe. In England and Wales pastures are universally described as dried up in some cases so effectually that what remained of the grass, pressed in the hand, crumbled like dried herbs. The root crops suffered most severely, but everything sowed or planted in the spring had received severe and almost irreparable injury. Scotland and Ireland shared in the general distress.—New York Times, July 31.

A Painful Story.

Yesterday the police records announced that a man had been picked up on Magazine street in a sick and destitute condition, and taken to the Charity Hospital. These few lines were all. They gave no warning of a history that was full of the most eventful and remarkable adventures. For this sick and destitute man was once a statesman, a Representative and Senator in Congress, and a lawyer of distinguished ability. At one time he was the idol of a great party in a neighboring State, and there was no position of place and confidence he could not have held. But, like many others, his intemperate habits soon forfeited him the respect of his friends and the confidence of his party. Sinking lower and lower in the pit of ruin, he dissolved his family connections. His wife abandoned him; his children forsook him, and, alone in the world, he was picked up in the streets of New Orleans, sick and destitute, without money and without friends. There are many here who will recognize the man.—New Orleans Picayune, July 28.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 6, 1868.

There is not much change to note in our produce markets, but the leaning is toward an improvement in trade. Flour is in limited supply, at least the choice grades, and the market is firm with an advance in some grades. New Wheat is coming in fairly and prices are gradually drooping. Oats are in good demand, and firm at full prices with but light receipts. Corn is quiet and unchanged. We quote:

GRAIN—There is a steady demand for Wheat with sales of new at $2,00 to $2,10, for prime Red. Old Rye is in good demand, and we now quote at $1,45 to $1,50. New Rye is quoted at $1,25. Old Oats are being sold at 82 to 83 on track and 84 to 85 in store. New Oats are quoted at all kinds of prices from 55 to 60; we heard of some contracts having been made at what is considered equal to 62 or 63 delivered here. Corn is quiet and nominally unchanged at $1,05 to $1,10 for mixed and prime Yellow. Barley is about as much of a myth as ever. We do not hear of any new crop having been bought as yet, and prices have not been established.

FLOUR—The Flour market is quiet and unchanged; the demand is still restricted to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade, though the feeling in regard to much lower prices seems to have been checked somewhat for the present. We continue to quote at $10,50 to $11 for Spring Wheat, $11,00 to $12.00 for Winter Wheat, and $12 to $13 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $9,25 to $9,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is unchanged at 13¾a14c for Shoulders; 16¼ to 18¼c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; and 21¼c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 19¼c. Mess Pork $29,00 to $30,00. Dried Beef 22c.

LARD OIL—Is unchanged at $1,15 for No. 2, and $1,40 for No. 1.

BUTTER—Is in steady demand with regular sales at 33 to 35, for fair to prime.

EGGS—Prices are nominal, ranging from 10 to 20c per dozen as to quality. A choice article readily commands the latter figure.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 13 to 14 for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 15 to 16 for Factory and 18 to 20 for Sweitzer.

POTATOES—Continue very dull, and unchanged at $3,00 per bbl.

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 per bbl to the trade and $2,00 in a retail way.

SEEDS—There has been no arrivals of new crop Flax Seed and the market is nominal at $2,00 per bush. No demand apparently for either Clover of Timothy Seeds.

HAY—Is still quoted at $20 to $30 per ton from country wagons, according to quality.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 6.—The rapid advance in gold during the week has a tendency to impart a buoyant tone to the market for all imported fabrics, but its effect is not yet seemingly felt, as the demand is not active enough among the jobbing trade. There is a good business among commission men, however, in heavy and fancy woolens adapted to the season. Shawls, balmorals, flannels, blankets, black and colored in pairs, and all goods of this class are in good enough request, and prices are sufficiently low to impart confidence. Ray's woolen shawls, for instance, which sold at 350 gold before the war, are now selling at 375 currency with larger discounts. The results is a great rush for these goods, which are likely to advance. In cotton goods there is not much doing, and singular to relate the market for the raw material is weak, notwithstanding the rise in gold, but as goods are not abundant and cloth is relatively low, there is little or no room for reduction, whereas a more animated demand would be likely to lead to an advance in prices.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with four feet in the channal. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant and apparently settled.

Business is again completely suspended at the main landing and is likely to remain so until there is another rise. There is enough of water now for low water boats but the great trouble lies in the fact that it is likely to run out before a boat could get ready and pick up a trip.

There are quite a number of towboats enroute for this port with tows mainly, of empty barges.

—The Camelia and Ida Rees left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday evening.

—The Glendale Wananita and Peninah are laid up at St. Louis, and the J. N. McCullough at Cincinnati.

—A Helena dispatch of Monday says the Ackley arrived on the 28th. There is three feet of water on Dauphin's shoals. Weather cool. Receipts increasing.

—The St. Paul Dispatch says the Caffray has dredged good channels on Pig's Eye, Gray Cloud, Beef Slough, and other bars, and besides pulled out over 100 snags.

—A Louisville telegram under date of Tuesday says: The Emma No. 3 arrived from N. O., and is at the wharf discharging freight. She will probably leave during the night. When about 15 miles below New Albany, this morning, a negro by the name of Robert Anderson, fell overboard and was drowned.

—The Evansville Journal, of Monday, says: The fine wharf boat of Hubbs, Patrick & Co., was sold at auction on Saturday, by Joseph P. Elliott, auctioneer, and was knocked down to Mr. H. H. Umble for E. W. Patrick, for $6,800, subject to a mechanics' lien of some $375. Mr. Patrick will continue the business.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer of Wednesday says: There is an unusual array of steamers at the wharf for this season, announced for various points. An unusual degree of activity, however, was not observable, we are sorry to say. There is a good deal of freight for New Orleans, but shippers are holding back expecting a considerable reduction of rates in consequence of the rise in the river.

—The Northwestern Union Packet Line, the Northwestern Line, and the Keokuk packets, have advanced rates between St. Louis and Keokuk. Up stream, heavy freights, 12½c per 100 pounds; dry goods, 15c. Down stream, grain, 12½c per 100 pounds; pork 30c per barrel; flour and apples 25c. These rates go into effect on the 5th, and will be uniform on all the boats of the various packet lines.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 149.

In the politics of the last ten years Gov. Seymour has preferred the losing to the winning side.—New York World.

He is consistent in the same preference this year.

THE President won't support General GRANT. He finds it to be inconsistent with the human constitution to befriend a man who has put him in the tight corner that GRANT did in the War Office business.

A POWERFUL Democratic speech by Senator HENDRICKS, at New Albany, Indiana, on Saturday last, was followed by a Republican gain of seven hundred votes at the municipal election on the Tuesday after. BLAIR and Revolution no doubt helped in that result.

THE Republican Conferees for the twenty-third Congressional district before their last adjournment passed this resolution:

"Resolved, That the Conference adjourn to meet at this place on the 10th instant, and that our candidates be requested to consult together, with the view of aiding us in making a nomination."

THE Cincinnati Enquirer of the 5th, having probably had a private warning of the tenor of SEYMOUR'S letter of acceptance, "repudiates any responsibility for the indiscreet speeches of HAMPTON, COBB, TOOMBS and others, delivered since the New York Convention." Why couldn't Mr. SEYMOUR have posted up our neighbor of the Pittsburgh Post, in the same way, restraining it from its indiscretion in declaring, a few days since, that it fully endorsed WADE HAMPTON'S utterances? "One more unfortunate!"

THE State authorities of Louisiana have at last made a formal demand upon the Federal Government for military aid to preserve the peace and enforce the laws in that State. The Governor officially states that the rebel organization has become too general, too powerful and too well armed and officered to be resisted by the fewer white loyalists and the overawed colored population. He proceeds to recapitulate some of the more prominent facts, which show the rule of a lawless spirit of rebellion in many of the rural parishes, and that nothing but the presence of Federal troops restrains the conspirators from taking forcible possession of New Orleans itself. The Governor accordingly, after stating the inability of the constituted authorities to enforce the laws thus resisted, makes the constitutional demand for Federal aid. This demand, it is said, the President will not accede to in this form, insisting that the application must be made to the local commander, Gen. BUCHANAN. The country will narrowly observe the action of the Federal Executive in this case, as in others that may be presented from the South this year, and the President may rely upon it that he will be held to the most strict and faithful account, His fatiure to discharge promptly the duties of a faithful Executive, in this and other cases that are likely to follow, will very justly be regarded as tantamount to a direct and powerful encouragement for rebellion.

THE spirit of the Democratic rebels who are clamoring for a removal of the disfranchising restrictions in Tennessee is fairly illustrated by the fact that the very night after Mr. JORDAN, a Republican member of the Legislature, had introduced a bill to repeal these restrictions, a band of one hundred of the Ku-Klux rode armed through the city of Nashville. Of course, that put an end to all talk of granting the rebel request. It was concluded that there would be time enough to enfranchise the rebels after they had learned to respect the already existing laws. In the same connection, it should be remembered that the ex-rebel Generals, who have really seen service, declare that the troubles which threaten the peace of the State are all made by the "home Generals," rebels who never saw service at all. And one of them, General MEANEY, declared, in reference to their disfranchisement, thus:

"I will trust to you that enfranchisement will come in due time. Nor, Sir, in all frankness, am I one to hold you unforgiveable for my disfranchisement. When we first returned home from war, we would certainly (if permitted to vote) have been able under our then franchise laws to have taken perfect political control in the State. This you might have honestly deemed a dangerous power for those so recently at war with your Government. I can only express my earnest hope that you who have withheld it will yourselves restore us the ballot. If this be done it will verify the assertion, that its denial was but a temporary expedient for protection to the State."

SEYMOUR'S ELECTIONEERING DODGE.

After four weeks of delay, the Democratic nominee for the Presidency at last opens his mouth with a formal acceptance of the nomination, in a letter which we printed yesterday. It is stated, and generally believed to be true, that this period of delay, unprecedented in the political history of any party, has been employed, first, in an effort by Mr. SEYMOUR and his particular friends to obtain the general consent of the Democratic leaders to his withdrawal from the ticket, with the substitution in his place thereon of Mr. CHASE or Mr. HENDRICKS, and, second, that effort failing, in consultation with those leaders throughout the Northern States, as to the most proper phraseology of the document which has now appeared. It was felt by those leaders that the indecent haste with which BLAIR, nominated for the second place, had anticipated his nominal superior, committing the party to an extremely violent and revolutionary, though strictly just, interpretation of its platform, had very seriously alarmed the people and perhaps had fatally compromised Democratic prospects in the canvass. The "whelming tide" of public indignation which BLAIR'S utterances have awakened in every loyal breast throughout the land, breaking down the barriers of mere party, and leading honest Democratic voters by thousands to spurn his invitation to inaugurate another civil war, has had the effect to convince Mr. SEYMOUR and his friends that, in adopting their incendiary programme, they had fatally mistaken the popular temper, and could only hope to avert a most disastrous defeat by an immediate change of front. Yet, desirable as a more prudent policy seemed, they have not been unconscious of the difficulty in the way of making that change. They could not entirely disown BLAIR and Revolution, for he was expressly nominated upon that platform pre-announced by himself. The frank but "indiscreet" testimony of WADE HAMPTON and other leading Southern rebels—who controlled important committees in the Convention, and who have put it on record that, so far as the great sectional question is involved, the candidates and platform framed by themselves mean the nullification of the laws and armed resistance to their enforcement by Federal authority, and nothing else but that—have still more increased the embarrassment of the Democratic politicians. They have not dared to disregard the crack of the rebel whip, either by rejecting BLAIR as the rebel candidate, by excluding his proclamation of revolutionary defiance from their platform of principles, or, even now, when the peril to their partizan interests has become so apparent, by dismounting this "man on horseback" who threatens to lead the Democratic squadrons plunging madly into another civil war. Nor, on the other hand, have they dared to offend the loyal Democratic masses still more fatally by an explicit endorsement of Mr. BLAIR'S extremely dangerous opinions.

We have the result of the month's anxious counsellings in the elaborate stump-speech with which HORATIO SEYMOUR "accepts" his nomination. A long-drawn, verbose indictment of Loyalty for its efforts to reconstruct the constitutional fabric which a Democratic-rebel treason had shattered, is artfully designed to cover the phrases, marked and decisive, in which Mr. SEYMOUR attempts to repudiate the BLAIR interpretation. Under the guise of an attack upon "Radical violence," his letter is a specious protest against all violence whatever. Mr. SEYMOUR and his friends, with all other intelligent citizens, well know that it is not the Republicans who have used "violence" hitherto, or menace it hereafter. They know that the whole Southern land is to-day filled with the outcries of Union men outraged, robbed and assassinated by Democratic K. K. K. rebels; that from the Ohio to the Gulf the fields, which are yet red with the blood of hundreds of thousands of our kindred slain by rebel hands while upholding the banner of the Union, again ring with the old "rebel yell" of HAMPTON, VANCE, PERRY, TOOMBS, HILL, and other hundreds of Democratic leaders who defiantly proclaim the second appeal to arms. They know that, throughout the Republic, wherever the voice of our great leader is heard, the consenting voice of a loyal people demands peace and obedience to the constituted and lawful authorities. They know that the only threats of violence which have been heard have fallen from the lips of their own candidates, and have been taken up and formally reiterated in that Democratic platform which declares loyal legislation to be void, which pledges its candidates to nullify those laws by arms, and which has naturally inspired its rebel supporters with fresh and sanguine hopes for the "lost cause" which SEYMOUR and BLAIR stand pledged to restore.

When Mr. SEYMOUR talks of violence, therefore, it is the programme of BLAIR and the Convention, as justly interpreted in the light of the facts and in the plainest meaning of the language, which he is attempting to repudiate. We must check this violence, he says. Elect our President and a majority of the Representatives, he adds, and it would not give us power to make violent and sudden changes, but only to check extreme measures. We all deplore a spirit of violence and, like right-thinking men, abhor a condition of civil war, whines HORATIO SEYMOUR. It won't do, sir! Your party cannot disown its platform; it cannot, for it does not, deny and repudiate the candidates nominated upon it and expressly for it; it cannot deny the policy which its Committee on Resolutions, (as testified to literally and directly by HAMPTON himself,) gave carte-blanche to that red-handed rebel to shape, precisely as it now stands before the world, as the formal expression of Democratic principles in this year 1868. No, Sir! all your fine-spun platitudes about "Radical violence" must come straight home to the party of BLAIR and Revolution, like ill birds, to roost in the congenial Copperhead shades which hatched them. And your artful protests against the Southern interpretation of your principles can avail you naught, because that rebel interpretation is the only true one. No sir! it is not in this way, not by these false recriminations against the loyal living and the loyal dead, not by these specious and hackneyed generalities of groundless accusation against the loyal people who are proposing to govern and control that Union which their loyalty, not yours, nor of your "friends," has preserved, not by your long-drawn vauntings of a Democratic yearning for peace, and order, and submission to law, and obedience to the Constitution, and of a holy horror of strife and bloodshed and civil war, not by your empty assurance of pacific intentions, to which every mail from the rebel States brings Democratic contradictions, and every Southern wind bears the defying lie—it is not in any such way that Mr. SEYMOUR and the other Democratic supporters of BLAIR and another rebellion can hope to blot out the record of their disloyalty, which, written red in ineffaceable letters of blood, the best blood of the Republic, during four years of carnage, is to be re-traced again after November, under the Democratic programme. No! gentlemen, your platform and your candidates have been already officially and audaciously proclaimed to be what they are—Rebellion and Civil War—and you will find that the American people have too much intelligence to be amused or hoodwinked by a stump-speech from the one candidate, and that their hearts are too loyal and brave to be cowed by the treasonable threats of the other. The issue has been written too plainly. Thank God that it will not need to be washed out in fresh blood, since the suffrages of loyalty will yet suffice for the protection of the Union, the preservation of Peace, and the enforcement of the Laws!

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

Yesterday the Pennsylvania Railroad Company forwarded from the East Liberty stock yards four cars freighted with diseased cattle, parts of the three lots of which we have heretofore spoken. This was done by consent of the Meat Inspector of this city, with the understanding that they should be treated as impregnated with pestilence, and that all practicable precautions should be taken against their coming in contact with healthy herds. It was, also, part of the understanding that the cars in which they were transported should not be used for some time to come in the carrying of cattle, but should be employed in moving oil. The chief reason urged for this arrangement was the fact that cattle dying from disease bring at this point only eight dollars a head, while at Communipaw they command thirty.

The residue of the three infected droves remaining here are being killed as fast as the boiling establishment can dispose of their carcasses, and when all of them shall be disposed of the pens they have occupied will be cleansed as thoroughly as they can be.

So far no signs of the malady have appeared in any other lots of cattle in the Yards, and the Superintendent avows his determination to take every possible pains to exterminate all traces of the disease and to prevent fresh importations of the contagion.

Admitting that the owners of these plague-stricken cattle, the officers of the Railroad Company, and the Meat Inspector have acted in good faith, we cannot avoid saying that we are not satisfied with what they have done, or what they propose to do. None of these infected cattle ought to have been forwarded eastward. All of them ought to have been promptly killed and their remains effectually disposed of here. The difference between eight and thirty dollars for each carcass constitutes no valid reason why cattle congregated at Communipaw, or at the Yards between this point and that, where it is necessary to stop and feed or water animals in transitu, should be exposed to the distemper.

Nor do we see that any precautions whatever are taken to prevent the arrival here of other lots of cattle from localities at the West where the disorder is prevailing in a malignant form. The three lots which created trouble here were not bought and forwarded ignorantly, if we understand the matter aright. They are reputed to have been bought in Sangamon and Champaigne counties, Illinois, where the contagion prevails to alarming extent; perhaps, were obtained at low figures on that account, and might have yielded a handsome speculation had they gone through and been sold before the infection disclosed itself. What is there to prevent other lots from these same districts from arriving here? Doubtless the unpropitious results attending the forwarding of these droves will have a tendency to check traffic in animals reasonably suspected of having been exposed to the plague; but something more than this is needed. The evidence is patent that cattle presumably infected have been forwarded eastward from this point in the hope of making a gain of twenty-two dollars a head. Why may not such cattle be sent here from the West under a like inducement?

THE GERMANS FOR GRANT.

The following resolutions were adopted at a mass meeting of German citizens held in Philadelphia on the 5th:

Resolved, by the German Republicans of Philadelphia, in mass meeting assembled,

Whereas, the Republican party is guided by the principles of public honesty in regard to the national indebtedness, of protection in regard to the Tariff question, and of universal liberty and equality in regard to the reconstruction of the Rebel States, and is therefore right in the most important issues of the day; and whereas, this same party is and always has been in favor of the self evident principles of the Declaration of Independence, that all men are born equal and free and endowed with the inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, therefore

Resolved, That it is only the Republican party which we can recognize as the true representatives of these genuine democratic principles.

Resolved, That we therefore shall give our votes only to the candidates of the Republican party, U. S. Grant and Schuyler Colfax, whom we know as men of unblemished honesty, undoubted ability, undoubted principles and tried patriotism, and to the other and well tried and most capable men who are nominated by the Repubtican party, and that we call on all independent loyal citizens of whatever party they may belong to, to do the same

Resolved, That in order to carry out our principles, we have organized a Republican Campaign Club, and we will make our best efforts that at the next State and National elections the whole Republican ticket, with Grant and Colfax as our stradard-bearers, shall be triumphantly elected.

FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS. By John Bartlett. Fifth Edition. Boston: Little, Brown & Co.

This is not, in the ordinary sense, a dictionary of literary quotations, but an attempt to trace to their source passages and phrases which are so striking or sententious that they have passed into common use. All persons of extensive reading know that this is an exceedingly difficult and delicate undertaking. Ideas are the mental currency of the world, get into circulation and keep there, or drop out, it is most frequently hard to determine how. Comparatively few thinkers have been found much in advance of their respective generations. Indeed, the mental progress of the race seems to be the result of general movements, in which thousands or millions share, more or less consciously, rather than in the efforts of particular individuals. Books, for illustration, frequently appear in Europe, and excite sharp discussion; but when a studious American takes them in hand he finds nothing new; only a record, more or less perfect, of his own thoughts. The ideas are not so much in particular persons, as in the special age. When in the development of things the time has arrived for an idea or a train of ideas to take root, it is found that, like the rays of the rising sun, the light falls not upon one, but upon many.

Whenever an attempt is made to find the first embodiment of a thought, or a specially terse and felicitous expression thereof, it is hard for the explorer to be sure he is right. The explorer, as he pursues his search, finds the same precise idea in a number of contemporaneous authors, who were or were not familiar with each other's writings. Perhaps the idea belonged to neither of them, in the strict sense, but was part of the common currency. The explorer goes yet further back, through different languages and generations, finding here and there the same thought in use, till finally the pursuit is lost in the depths of antiquity. The same idea has fed unnumbered generations of the race; perhaps, descended traditionally from beyond the dawn of letters.

However, Mr. Bartlett has essayed a good work and performed it well. His book will be found not only pleasant but serviceable for such as feel an interest in tracing pertinent phrases in ordinary use, to some apparent or acknowledged fountain.

AMERICAN ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA, 1867. New York, D. Appleton & Co. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

This is the seventh volume of a chronological record of prominent events, embracing political, civil, military and social affairs, public documents, biography, statistics, commerce, finance, literature, science, agriculture and mechanical industry.

Within this extensive range all transpiring facts are registered which any persons in pursuit of general information would care to turn back upon; and these are given with great accuracy and particularity. There is no other publication in this country that supplies the same want; hence, this is invaluable to all men who desire either to refresh their own recollection or to speak and write with definiteness upon topics of current or recent interest.

This seventh volume contains elegant portraits of George Peabody, Anson Burlingame and Salmon P. Chase.

THE NEW TESTAMENT HISTORY, with an introduction, connecting the History of the Old and New Testaments. Edited by William Smith, LL. D., Classical Examiner in the University of London. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Helps for the interpretation and better understanding of the Scriptures, are multiplying, and supplying a want felt by students of Biblical History. The demand for such works, too, takes a wider sweep than in former years, in consequence of the activity of laymen in Sunday Schools and other departments of Church labor. This new work of Dr. Smith will be welcomed as a valuable contribution, and aid, in the study of the Word of God. The object of the work is to supply a Manual of New Testament History as that of the Old Testament History, in press. It may fitly take its place by the side of the Histories of Greece, Rome, England, and France, in "Harper's Student's Histories." The work consists of three parts. The First Book gives the connection between the Old and New Testament History; the Second presents a harmonized account of our Lord's Ministry, as related by the Four Evangelists, and the Third Book embraces the Apostolic History. The work is also supplied with valuable chronological tables, and a useful index. It contains twelve valuable maps and twenty-seven wood cuts. Ministers, students of theology, and Sunday School teachers, will find this work of signal help, and every library ought to have a copy for reference.

HENRY POWERS, (Banker.) How he Achieved a Fortune and Married. By Richard B. Kimball, author of "Saint Leger," etc. Published by G. W. Carleton & Co., New York. For sale by John W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

Kimball's "Saint Leger" was received by the public with much favor some years ago, and the author obtained quite a reputation in the literary world, which may favor the sale of this work. In this novel of commercial life we have wrought in elaborate detail the operations of a joint stock company, in which the hero of the story plays a part in the drama, which is hardly up to the morale of honorable commercial life. Finally, our hero turns up as a flourishing banker in New York. Bad as the name of Wall street is, we quite agree with the author in his views expressed in the closing chapter.

EARTHEN VESSELS. By Archie Fell. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

In this beautifully bound volume we have a story of life and devotion presented in an interesting form. The story is one of tender interest, and is worthy to be placed in the hands of young people. This house is noted for publishing works of sound and entertaining literature. This book is beautifully illustrated. Let it be widely circulated.

UPSIDE DOWN. By Rosa Abbott. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. For sale by John W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

The "Rosa Abbott Stories" have attained much popularity among young people. This story of "Upside Down, or Will and Work," gives phases of life in an attractive form, and inculcates lessons at the same time of moral worth, which cannot fail to do good. This little volume is handsomely illustrated.

GOOD STORIES. Part Four. Published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

This pamphlet series of "Good Stories" contains the following: From Hand to Hand, by Fitz James O'Brien; Count Ernest's Home, by Paul Heyse; Little Peg O'Shanghener; A Shabby Genteel Story, by W. M. Thackery. It contains full page illustrations and all for fifty cents. Just the kind of reading for travelers and pastime.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Linaments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should t once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

Liuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes; they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and st mulates them to a healthy and vigorous action

THE BILIOUS SEASON.

Seventy-five per cent. of the population of the United States are more or less bilious at this season. The midsummer sun stirs up the bile as certainly as it evolves miasma from the stagnant pools. It is of the u most importance, therefore, to check the tendency of the liver to diseased action with that incomparable anti-bilious specific—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Neglect the early symptoms, and the chances are that they will result in remittent fever, fever and ague, or jaundice. It is presumed that nobody deliberately desires to risk an attack from any one of these. But carelessness may be as disastrous as temerity. Do not procrastinate. As health is the greatest of earthly blessings, it should be every rational being s first care. Whoever chooses to use HOSTETTER'S RITTERS as a preventive now may escape the bilious epidemic and endemics which so generally prevail toward the close of the heated term and in the fall months. Is it not worth while to be forearmed when the means of defence are within the reach of all? The BITTERS are a NATIONAL REMEDY, everywhere procurable, and endorsed by the intelligent of every class Read what leading members of the community, clergymen, physicians, authors, statesmen, men of science, artists, travelers and distinguished soldiers, say about them. On the strength of these credentials give them a trial. They will be found the very best anti bilious medicine that modern pharmacy has introduced.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculair mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— C——.

HYDRAULIC COW-MILKER.

WANTED—IMMEDIATELY—All who are looking for business to call and examine the Hydraulic Cow-Milker,

"A sure cure for aching hands and kicking cows." It milks the four teats of a cow at once. It imitates the calf draw, and stops drawing to swallow. It will milk any cow perfectly dry in three minutes. It is operated by hand, dog, horse or other power. One man can attend several machines, milking as many cows at once. It is simple, durable and self-adjusting; will fit any cow. Milks three-teated cows as well as any. Easily worked, not liable to get out of order, and has proved by practical use to be more agreeable to the cow than hand-milking. A rare opportunity is now offered to enterprising men either to travel or locate in city or country. Call and examine for yourselves.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOUND.

That after repeated trials of other remedies, Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills are the best medicines extant to cure the diseases for which they are recommended.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action o the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congeste state of that all important organ upon which depedds the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine-glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

MELANCHOLY

Is one of the many disorders of the nervous system, arising from a low state of the constitutional health or severe prostration after long continued sickness, and requires invigorating remedies like Roback's Stomach Bitters to restore the nerves to their natural vitality.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of ROBACK'S BLOOD PILLS, STOMACH BITTERS and BLOOD PURIFIER are all Druggists everywhere.

☞ REPUBLICAN
CITY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of the City of Pittsburgh are hereby invited to attend Primary Meetings in their respective Wards on SATURDAY, August 15th, 1868,
Between the hours of 3 and 7 P. M., and there vote for candidates to be placed in nomination for the several city offices, viz:
One person for Mayor of said city.
One person for Controller of said city.
One person for Treasurer of said city.
The voting at said meetings will be by printed or written ballots, containing the names of the candidates voted for, each office on a ticket by itself, and the elections, as far as practicable, will be conducted in accordance with the laws and usages regulating State, county and city elections, the officers taking care to keep a correct list of all persons voting thereat.
The elections will be conducted, wherever it can be done, by the Republican election officers chosen at the last city election; and in wards where no such officers were chosen, the officers to conduct the election have been designated, as hereinafter mentioned, by the City Committee.
The Committee suggest that the officers thus designated to hold this election shall voluntarily take the usual affidavit administered to election officers under the laws of the State, so as to shut out all cause of complaint.
The election in the First and Second Wards will be held at the Public School Houses in said wards.
In the Third Ward at the southeastern corner of Sixth and Smithfield streets.
In the Fourth Ward at the Public School House.
In the Fifth Ward in the office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court, at the Court House, under the supervision of W. B. Neeper, George Glass and R. J. Smith, who are appointed the Board to hold said election.
In the Sixth Ward at the Public School House.
In the Seventh Ward at the Public School House.
In the Eighth Ward at the house of Henry Wilson.
In the Ninth Ward at the Public School House.
In the Tenth Ward at the house of Wm. Brown, at the corner of Penn and Mechanics streets.
In the Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Seventeenth Wards, at the usual places of holding elections in said wards.
In the Sixteenth Ward at the Wigwam, corner of Pearl and Main streets, under the supervision of Noah G. Craig, Roland Smith and John C. Stewart.
In the Eighteenth Ward at the place of holding elections for what was heretofore known as the 2d precinct of Collins township, under the supervision of David Jones, David Holmes and David Kirk.
In the Nineteenth Ward at Joseph Ganster's house on the Greensburg turnpike, under the supervision of John N. Berlin, Wm. H. Morrison and James Joyce.
In the Twentieth Ward at Beitler's School House, under the supervision of Wm. H. Denniston, Geo. F. Rahauser and John R. Baum.
In the Twenty-first Ward at Ross' School House, under the supervision of A. J. Woolslayer, S. B. Ross and R. W. Morgan.
In the Twenty-second Ward at Irwin's School House, under the supervision of John R. Murdock, William Irwin and Randal Morton.
In the Twenty-third ward at the usual place for holding elections in late Peebles township, under the supervision of Joseph Boals, James B. Palmer and James McKibben.
Every supporter of GRANT and COLFAX and the city nominees is earnestly invited to take part in each election, and none other; and the election officers are hereby respectfully urged to use all possible diligence to preserve the purity of the ballot box and secure a fair return of the votes cast.
The election officers, after the votes are counted, will make up duplicate returns thereof, one of which, with the list of voters, shall be placed in the ballot boxes, and the other taken possession of by the Return Judge; and the Return Judges of the several wards shall present the same at a meeting of Return Judges, to be held at the Common Council Chamber, on TUESDAY, August 18th, at 10 o'clock A. M., when they shall cause the same to be added together, and declare the result, the person receiving the highest vote for each office to be declared the nominee.
The Return Judges, at their meeting, will appoint the City Executive Committee to serve for the ensuing year.
The Committee desires to call the attention of the Election Boards to the following resolution, which was adopted at the last meeting of the Committee:
Resolved, That we recommend to the officers of the Primary Election the enforcement of all legal rules respecting the qualification of voters, at general elections, in addition to the requirement that the voter shall be a known member of the Union Republican Party.
A resolution was also passed authorizing the Election Boards to fill all vacancies occurring in the officers of their respective districts.

Gold has still further advanced, being quoted this evening at 148¾, against 148, yesterday, and the tendency still seems to be upward. There are various assigned for this rapid advance, the chief one of which seems to be the increased foreign importations.

The New York Stock quotations as received this afternoon by Mr. Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: 1881's 116: 5-20's 1863, 114¾; do 1864, 110⅞; do 1865, 112⅜; do new, 108⅜; do 1867, 108⅝; 10-40's 109¼. Erie, 63½; Fort Wayne, 109; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 89, Western Union Telegraph, 34¾.

—The Philadelphia Ledger in referring to the sharp and somewhat unexpected advance in gold, says:

The prices yesterday, were the highest at which gold has sold in this city since November, 1866, when it was up to 148¾. In September of last year it was nearly as high as it is now, and ruled above 140 until December of that year. In January of this year it went to 142, and there has not been a month since in which it has not sold above 140. There is some anxiety to know in precisely what shape the seven million Alaska purchase money will be traasmitted. In connection with the prices of gold our ability to export largely of cotton and breadstuffs will have some influence. If hereafter, as heretofore, we pay for our imports by exporting bonds instead of the product of labor, we shall but build up a debt against us, the effect of which will be to carry abroad our gold, and to further depreciate the currency with which the coin is measured.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 149¼; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 116; 5-20's, 1862, 114¾; 5-20's, 1864, 110⅞; 5-20's, 1865, 112⅜; 10-40's, 109⅝; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 108¾; 5-20's, January and July, '67 108⅞; '68, 108¾; June 7-30's, par less ¼ July 7-30's, do ¼ August 118¾; Sept, 118¼ Oct. 118; Union Pacific Railroad, 102; Central 103.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 6, 1868.

CATTLE.

The market for cattle has been very much excited, and unsettled this week, in consequence of the arrival of several droves of infected cattle, large numbers of which died while in transit as well as since their arrival at the yards. The result is there has been and is still considerable of a panic, and the end we fear is not. There was quite a large number of eastern buyers in attendance, many of whom after learning how matters stood, picked up their carpet bags and returned home without buying a single bullock. The indications at the opening were very promising for a heavy week's business, as there was a large supply of Cattle, and as we have already stated, plenty of buyers; but when it become known that the cattle disease was in the yards, business soon "played out," and holders were, and are still in a quandry, as to what disposition to make of their cattle. We can report a fair number of transactions in prime fat cattle from Ohio, and eastern Indiana, but there were no buyers, so far as we could learn, for stock from Illinois, as it was feared that if not already infected, they might possibly take that terrible disease.

The heaviest buyers, as is nearly always the case at this season of the year, were stock growers from Lancaster Dauphin, and other adjoining counties in the Eastern part of the State, and there were quite a number of these in attendance this week, but as we have already intimated they bought nothing, being fearful of spreading the scourge in that particular section of the country, and as a consequence the yards to-day were pretty well filled with this particular grade of stock, and no buyers. These cattle were shipped here with a view of selling to these parties, and as it is probable that the further east they go, the more they will depreciate in value, holders are placed in an ugly position; it is simply absurd to think of shipping east under existing circumstances, and to ship back home again, would be rather expensive.

We desire to have it understood however, that the great proportion of all the prime cattle on sale, in good condition, and not shipped from Chicago, sold without much difficulty at fair prices, though some what below the range of last week. We quote at 7,50 to 7,75 for prime to extra fat steers, and 6,75 to 7,25, for fair to medium. But as we have already remarked, those who were so unfortunate as to have stock cattle are bound to loose heavily.

The authorities at the yards are doing everything in their power to prevent the disease from spreading, and we are glad to state that thus far they have been successful. Not a single case has occurred outside of the three lots of cattle referred to, and by to-morrow or next day, they will all have been killed, and disposed of in such a manner, it is hoped, as will effectually prevent the scourge from spreading. It will take the trade however, some time to recover from the effects of the panic, and we expect to see both arrivals, and shipments, very much reduced for some weeks, even if there should be no further trouble from this dreaded scourge.

Holmes Lafferty & Co., sold 38 head for Doud to Laws, at 6; 42 for same to Evans at 5½; 6 for same to same at 5; 20 for same to McCall at 6; 40 for same to same at 6,40; 20 for Whittlesy to Miller at 5,75; 18 for Clifford to Entress, prime weighing 20,850 at 7,25.

SHEEP.

The arrivals of Sheep have been larger than usual this week, and notwithstanding there was a pretty full attendance of buyers, the market was a little tame, and today, under the influence of disconraging advices from the east, buyers were asking for still further concessions. We quote at 3 to 5c, for common to strictly prime fat Sheep. In a dull market holders of common and inferior Sheep are always the heaviest losers, and we would ask our friends in the country to bear this in mind.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co., sold 192 head for Scott to Bailey at $3,75; 210 for Crum & Glass to Barclay at $4,30; 188 for Dent to Pancoast at $4,45; 98 for Cook & Craff to Pidcock & Co., at $4,25; 96 for Burns to the same buyer at 3,75; 103 for Sargeant to the same at 4,00.

Smith & Talmage sold 126 for Ruckenbrood to Dietrich at 3,50; 112 for Brooks to Aull & Myers at 3,50; 212 for Brooks to Hill at 1,87½ per head: 100 for Ruckenbrood to Hines, "scalawags" at 1,00 per head; 200 head for Williamson to Pearce at 2,50 per head; 200 for Jones to Loyd at 2,40 per head.

R. C. Crum sold 185 head for Hasson to Deitrich at averaging 78 at 3,25; 401 for Wycoff to Deitrich at 5,08 per head; extra averaging about 92 lbs; 210 to Barclay, averaging 80 lbs at 4,30.

HOGS.

The Hog market has been firm and fairly active and under the influence of continued light arrivals and a steady demand, prices are well sustained, and, if anything a shade higher. We quote at 9½ to 9,75 for New York and 10,50 to 10,90 for Philadelphia Hogs.

Holmes, Laffarty & Co. sold 81 for Cook & Craff to Hedges at 9⅜; 103 for Blair to Crouse, Emerick & Co. at 10,35; 49 for McFadden to the same at 9,70; 56 for Holmes & Pfieffer to Keys at 10,40.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, August 6, 1868.

The Crude market was somewhat excited to-day in consequence of the improved character of the eastern advices, though, as yet, the advance in prices has been very slight, the sales were larger in the aggregate than for several days, as will be seen by the following: 2,000 bbls for all year, sellers option, at 13c; 1,000 each for August and September at 14½c; 1,000 bbls on cars at Oil City, at $5,50; 3,000 do do at $5,50; and 2,000 do. do. at $5.60. The first, sellers option all the year, shows an advance of half a cent, the sale reported being at 12½c. Spot Oil is firmer, being held at 14½, and but little offering.

REFINED—The market for refined Oil was also considerably excited to-day, and with considerable inquiry and but little offering; prices are firm and from one half to three quarters of a cent higher. Sales of two lots of 500 each for September at 36; 2,000 for August at 34⅞; 500 at 34⅝; 500 each from Septemper to December at 35c, and 500 each from October to March at 33½c. As will be seen September compared with last evening has advanced a full half cent; August is firm an eighth to a quarter cent. better; and the last four months is up a half cent. It was reported this afternoon that a prominent oil firm at Oil City had been forced to go under. No particulars.

The Wreck of the Frigate Hussar.

The Chicago Republican in speaking of a new and apparently thoroughly successful diving bell or submarine explorer says:

The experiments made with the explorer yesterday were in the vicinity of the wreck of the English frigate Hussar. This vessel formed part of the English fleet during the Revolutionary war, and on board of her was kept the treasure for the payment of the British army. On the 25th of November, 1780, (Evacuation Day), the officers of the vessel, knowing of the vicinity of the French fleet, attempted to escape by running the frigate up the East river. She struck, however, on Pot Rock, at Hell Gate, and sustained serious damage. Her officers sailed her on for about a mile, to what was then known as Port Morris, now the foot of One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street, supposing that they would there find shallow water. In fact, however, they had unwittingly selected the deepest part of the river, the vessel having at least seventy feet of water beneath her keel. A hawser was got out and made fast to a huge oak tree on the bank of the river, and in a few minutes afterward an alarm was raised that the vessel was sinking. So rapidly did she settle down that the officers were compelled to rush from their cabins, leaving their clothing and even their swords, money and jeweled snuff-boxes behind them. On the lower deck were eighty American prisoners in manacles. No attempt was or could be made to save them, and every man, so far as known, perished. The hawser which had been made fast to the oak tree exerted such a strain upon the tree that it tore it up by the roots. Not far from where the vessel went down, Gov. Morris had an elegant mansion—a field of young corn now waves over its sight—where he afforded accommodations for the night to the officers of the ill-fated Hussar. On the arrival of these gentlemen in England a court-martial was held, and from the evidence then given it appeared that the Hussar had on board at the time she sunk, 900,000 George III. guineas, which were packed in fifty two iron boxes bound with copper, and built into the run of the vessel. There can, therefore be no doubt that the treasure is lying at the bottom of the river, to reward the luck or perseverence of some one.

In 1794 the English Government sent over two brigs with men and implements to raise the frigate: but after two seasons of fruitless labor they left. In 1819 they made a second attempt to raise her with the most powerful machinery known, but the workmen were ordered off by the American Government, on the ground that the vessel and all she contained were prizes of war. The wreck was allowed to rest for a time, but in 1848 other attempts were made to recover the treasure. An organization known as the Frigate Hussar company, was formed, and constant attempts were made to discover the treasure without success. Up to 1867 the company had expended $60,000 in its fruitless search. This company now have a contract with Messrs. W. R. Taylor and J. A. Weesse, owners of the submarine explorer, to raise the treasure of the Hussar on a salvage of thirty per cent.

The explorations in and around the wreck of the Hussar, which have been made from time to time, have resulted in the discovery of the officers' swords, which were left in their cabins, a superb gold jewelled snuff box, a small box of lignum vitæ, containing gold coin, 125 guineas, 26 cannon, 4,000 balls, a number of muskets, bullets, buckets bearing the name Hussar, bottles of porter, and gun flints. Several skeletons, or parts of skeletons, with mancles on the wrists, have also been discovered. Of the cannon raised, two were presented to the English Government, and several are still to be seen in the arsenal at the Central Park.

The Worth of Rags.

The manufacture of paper for writing and printing purposes is one of the most interesting as well as important branches of industry in all civilized parts of the world. It is the growth of centuries and the steady accompaniment of civilization. The reader of the delicately tinted "last poem" or the morning newspaper, would doubtless be astonished could he know the history of the particles of linen and cotton which compose the page before him. Every one knows that paper is made of rags, but it is not every one who reflects, when he takes up a book or paper, that he may be making a use of his own old clothes, or possibly of the clothes of a Hungarian soldier or Beauin Arab.

The chief importation of rags into this country is from the Mediterranean ports. The supply from Trieste and Leghorn was for a long time of the greatest value, especially what was known as Hungarian rags, the latter being the most esteemed, because consisting very largely of linen. Of late years the introduction of cotton wearing apparel has resulted in a deterioration of the quality of Mediterranean stock, and the manufacturers are now very largely supplied by the American product.

A story was sometime since afloat in the newspapers, to the effect that an importation of mummy rags from Egypt had been made and paper of good quality was produced from them. The story, however, had only this foundation, that a quantity of rags had been received from Alexandria, but none of them had been acquainted with the bodies of Egyptians before the times of Mahommed Ali. The staple in the rags of mummies is dead, and the ordinary cutting and beating process of the paper mills would reduce them to an inpalpable powder without any tenacity of fibre.

The business of gathering old rags and old paper for manufacturers occupies a large number of hands in all parts of the country. Not long since, among a quantity of this mixed stock which was sent to New England paper mill, were found some old, rare and valuable books, one of which was a specimen of the splendid typography of Mentelius, the contemporary and co-workmen of Guttenburg. At another time, in a similar package, was found a large collection of the private correspondence of one of the most eminent Americans of a former generation. The paper mills are remorseless when such articles fall into their hands, and it is not to be doubted that immense numbers of valuable manuscripts and autographs have thus gone to the white tomb of the vats.

Agricultural Fairs.

The New Nork State Fair is to be held at Rochester, commencing September 20. The Ohio State Fair takes place at Toledo, and continues from the 21st to the 25th of September. The Indiana State Fair, to be held at Indianapolis, begins on Monday, September 28, and lasts through the week. The premium list amounts to $12,000. The Minnesota State Fair occurs this year at Minneapolis. It continues from September 20 to October 2. The Illinois State Fair commences this year at Quincy, opening September 21, and continuing until the 26th. Upward of $12,000 are offered in premiums, of which $9,000 are in money. Kentucky holds her State Fair at Louisville, from September 15th to the 19th. The Arkansas State Agricultural and Mechanics' Association holds its first Fair at Little Rock, on Tuesday, November 3, to continue four days.

CLIPPINGS.

European Continental dandies eclipse the women in all the follies and extravagancies of dress. They plait their hair, paint, wear corsets and sleep in perfumed night gowns.

The cinchona tree, from which the celebrated Peruvian bark is obtained, is cultivated successfully in Jamaica, climate and soil having been found remarkably propitious to it. The official gazette gives notice that from eight to ten thousand plants of the cinchona will be ready for sale to the public at the government cinchona plantation in the spring of 1869.

Inebriate Asylums.—The Committee on Inebriate Asylums of the National Temperance Convention, in their report commend such institutions to the sympathy and support of the temperance community, and are of opinion that, while medical treatment may not and should not be set aside, yet the only sure and successful way of thoroughly reforming the inebriate is by moral and religious instruction.

Figaro states that some time since seven young American ladies left New York to visit Europe, without the escort of a gentleman. They belong to wealthy families of New York, and have made the tour of Europe, being at last accounts in Hungary. Two of the seven have found husbands and settled down for life. Figaro asserts that the statement is a fact and not a canard.

Jules Favre has unearthed a rich document, which is certain to produce a great commotion in Bonapartist circles. It is a petition drawn up in 1846, and praying King Louis Phillippe to have Louis Napoleon Bonaparte court-martialled and shot as an enemy to the peace and tranquility of France. Among the signers of this interesting document are one of the Emperor's present Ministers, one of his ex-Ministers, half a dozen ultra Bonapartistic members of the Corps Legislatif, and Lieutenant Colonel (now Marshal) Canrobert.

The destruction of woodlands is said to remove the barriers against extensive inundations arising from heavy rain falls. It is asserted that the clearing of the Adirondack forests might ultimately inflict upon Northern and Central New York the same evils which the ravages of the woodman's axe have brought upon many portions of France and other European countries. The French Government, appreciating the importance of wooded tracts, has provided for the replanting of thousands of acres of forests, as a protection for the lands skirting the Alps against the tremendous floods which rendered certain districts unfit for agriculture.

Burning of the Nota Theatre.

The Turin Gazette gives details of the burning of the Nota theatre in that place. The disaster occurred during the performance of "Crispino e la Comare." The house was crowded and the piece had arrived at about the middle of the second act, when the scream of a woman was heard from behind the scenes, followed by the noise of hurried footsteps and a cry of "Keep your places; it is nothing." The clothes of a female dancer had caught fire, and in her terror she had run about with her skirt in a blaze; and had thus set fire to some drapery at the wings; she was however firmly inveloped in a linen cloth, and the flames of her dress were extinguished before she had suffered any injury. The alarm had, however, spread among the spectators, and a general rush was made to the doors; for a moment there was great danger of loss of life from the pressure, but some young men in the gallery above who could see what was going on near the stage called out that the fire was over. About half of the spectators then returned to their seats, while those nearest the door left the building. The disaster had indeed for a moment appeared to be at an end, as the canvas on fire had been torn down and trampled under foot. But the flames had found in the painted scenes and light woodwork an aliment too favorable, and the flames again appearing, the panic once more became general, screams were heard on all sides, several women fainted, many persons jumped from the windows on the staircase, and every made for the street, leaving behind hats, shawls, umbrellas, &c. Fortunately the theatre had been partly emptied at the first alarm, and every one was able to get away in safety.

The scene outside was most curious. The spectators might be seen, some with bare heads, and others with clothes torn from their backs, hurrying to and fro in search of friends or relatives. The actors and actresses were in their costumes. while some of the ballet girls, who had been surprised while dressing, were between two toilettes—half civil half theatrical, the flames in the meantime had gained the pit and the galleries, and as the interior of the house was constructed of wood and canvas only, any attempt to check the progress of the fire was uselesss; all that could be done was to prevent the conflagration from extending to the adjoining houses, and in a short time nothing but the blackened walls remained.

"Chassepot Tie."—The oft-repeated inquiry, "Who invented the Chassepot Tie?" has led to the investigation and solution of the problem, which in substance is briefly as follows: This article of neck dress, which at first was worn by gentleman and ladies of fashion, but which has since been reproduced in cheap and common styles, until the quantity sold has reached the enormous figure of 600,000, was first invented by Henry G. Fisk, Esq., of the firm of Fisk, Clark & Flagg, 58 White street, in 1867, and the first Chassepot ties that were ever sold came from this house. They imported the only ones that came to this country, after the invention of it by Mr. Fisk, but the great bulk of those sold by them were made in this country under their supervision. They kept the market until the goods were imitated by others in cheap and flimsy counterfeits, and yet controlled the trade long enough to make a handsome thing out of their invention.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be adplied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

Depressed Stock.—Illinois cattle.

Bully Items.—Those growing out of the cattle disease.

Meat "Axes."—The queries of reporters at the stock yards.

The number of inmates in the county jail yesterday was one hundred and ten.

New Water Pipe.—A new four-inch water pipe is being laid on Church avenue, Allegheny, from Sandusky to Anderson street.

Sunstroke.—David Byers, residing on River avenue, Allegheny, was sunstruck yesterday. His recovery is considered doubtful.

The Evening Mail of yesterday says: "A number of milch cows died in Allegheny yesterday. Supposed to have had the Texas fever."

Gone to His Field of Labor.—Bishop Mullen, who was ordained Bishop of the Erie Diocese last Sunday, left for his field of labor yesterday.

Delayed.—The through trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad were all delayed about two hours yesterday. We did not not learn the cause of the detention.

Struck Him.—P. H. Welsh alleges that James Kearns struck him a violent blow with his fist. A warrant was issued by Alderman Taylor for the arrest of James.

Personal.—H. M. Smith, Esq., of the Chicago Republican, passed through the city yesterday, on his way East. He was called upon at the Union Depot Hotel by a number of citizens.

About a Picture.—Alderman Taylor yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of Daniel Shields, charged on oath of John Walsh with larceny as bailee of a picture valued at seven dollars.

Committed.—Justice Lipp, of Birmingham, yesterday arrested David Morgan on an information made against him for surety of the peace by Henry Weitner. In default of $500 bail he was committed for trial.

Serious Charge.—W. J. Kennedy made information, yesterday, against Martha McConnell, charging her with keeping a bawdy house at No. 37 Washington street. Martha was arrested and gave bail for a further hearing.

The Republicans of the Third and Fifth wards (late Third and Tenth) will meet at City Hall this evening, at half-past seven o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Grant and Colfax Club. Speakers and music will be on hand.

Rapidly Progressing.—The work of laying the Nicolson pavement on Wood street, from Fifth to Liberty streets, is progressing rapidly, considering the extremely warm weather. The necessary lumber and blocks are being delivered on the ground.

Another Charge.—Zachariah Lawson, a colored individual, appeared before Alderman Strain, yesterday, and charged Mary White, Sarah Scanlon, Rachel Beggs, and others, with maintaining a bawdy house in Minersville. Warrants were issued.

False Pretense.—Wm. Jones was arrested yesterday and taken before Alderman Thomas, charged with obtaining money from Charles Jeremy by false and fraudlent pretences. After a hearing he was committed for trial in default of $400 bail.

Investigation Going On.—Fire Marshal Murphy is engaged in investigating the cause of the fire at Mr. James Hays' residence in East Birmingham, on Tuesday morning. Several witnesses have been examined, but as yet no positive clue has been obtained.

Abused Him.—John Driscoll, residing at No. 215 Spring alley, alleges that William Wilson choked and otherwise abused him. The accused was arrested at his residence, corner of Pike and Etna streets, and after a hearing before Alderman Strain, in default of $300 bail, committed to jail.

A Mean Scamp.—On Tuesday night some mean and cowardly scamp entered the stable of Mr. Thomas Patterson, on Rebecca, street, First ward, Allegheny, and inflicted a terrible gash in the stomach of a valuable horse with some sharp instrument. It is feared the animal is utterly ruined.

The loafers and loungers who usually take up their quarters on the Allegheny Postoffice steps every evening were not so numerous there last night. Perhaps Mayor Drum's police have had a hand in this. A gentle hint to move on, coming from a police officer, has a wonderful effect in some cases.

Appointment.—John Woodrow, Jr., was appointed by the Road Committee at their meeting yesterday to fill the vacancy in the office of Road Commissioner for the Third District. His predecessor was J. J. Young, who mysteriously disappeared some time since, in company, it is said, with a considerable amount of the city funds.

Serious Accident.—Capt. James Young, millwright at Lyon & Shorb's mill in Monongahela borough, while engaged in repairing the fly-wheel, slipped and fell into the fly pit, a distance of about sixteen feet, seriously cutting and bruising him about the legs and hips. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Kerr. He was much better yesterday.

Point Street Case.—Point street is a delectable place for persons of pugilistic tendencies, if the number of encounters occurring there is any criterion. The latest is that of Margaret King versus Michael and Mary Conroy. The prosecutrix alleges that the defendants beat and abused her without any provocation. The accused were arrested and held for a hearing.

Forgot to Pay.—C. F. Hushman made information before Alderman Donaldson, yesterday, against Alexander Koch for larceny as bailee. Hushman alleges that the defendant bought furniture from him, stating that it was for another party, who would give him the money to-pay for it as soon as received. Koch it is said subsequently received the money but failed to pay the prosecutor. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Charged with Maintaining a Nuisance.—The Mayor yesterday issued warrants for the arrest of Wm. Flaccus, Sr., and Wm. Flaccus Jr., charged on oath of Peter Goodemborrow with maintaining a public nuisance. It is alleged that the accused, who have a tannery at the forks of the road in Lawrenceville, permit the foul liquids from the establishments to overflow the grounds in the neighborhood to the great annoyance of the residents there.

Alleged Attempted Outrage.—The Mayor's police, yesterday, arrested Martin Kline, charged before Justice Davis, of East Liberty, with assault and battery with intent to commit a rape on the person of Ellen M'Fadden. The attempt was unsuccessful, but the prosecutrix alleges that she was very much abused by the defendant. He was held to bail for court.

Conferees' Meeting.—The Conferees of the Twenty-fourth Congressional District held another meeting yesterday afternoon, at the Monongahela House. They remained in session about three hours, during which twelve ballots were taken, the vote at the close standing as follows: Wallace, 6; Weyand, 3; Donnelly, 3. The meeting then adjourned until nine o'clock to-day.

The Olympics Again Victorious.—By special dispatch from Cleveland we learn that a match game of Base Ball took place there yesterday between the Olympics of Allegheny and the Forest City of that city, resulting in a victory for the Olympics. The game created great excitement, and was witnessed by the largest number of spectators ever gathered in the vicinity on any similar occasion.

A Vicious Animal.—An evening or two ago a horse belonging to Frederick Ashenbaugh kicked his driver, Wm. Kranson, while he was feeding him at the stable on Third street, Allegheny. Kranson's arm was broken, and the animal, not satisfied with this freak, attempted to bite him, but missed his mark and only succeeded in tearing the shirt off the man's body. An animal of that character is rather an ugly customer.

What Does It Mean?—Yesterday a boy called at the Coroner's office and inquired for that official. He stated that he had found the body of a drowned boy in the Ohio river near the Marine Railway, and he wanted to be paid for his trouble in securing it. The Coroner being out of the office, the little fellow failed in his object. The last seen of him he was going up to Devore's undertaking establishment in search of the official.

Barbers in Council.—The journeymen barbers of St. Louis held a mass meeting on Tuesday and passed resolutions strongly condemnatory of the custom of keeping barber shops open on Sunday, and pledging themselves to cease entirely from the practice after the second Sunday in August. A Committee was appointed to inform all employers of this action and request them to accede to the demands of their employés. The barbers in our vicinity might go and do likewise with beneficial results.

Failed to Come Off.—The walking match against time, in which Napoleon Young, an Ohio pedestrian, engaged to walk one hundred miles in twenty-four hours, failed to come off yesterday. It was to have taken place in Oakland Park, but there was some difficulty about the matter, the proprietor of the Park, we are informed, refusing to allow it to be used in the evening, and of course as the distance was to be gone over in twenty-four consecutive hours, it could not come off altogether during the daytime.

Thief Arrested.—John Kopt, an Allegheny lounger, entered the house of Mr. Smith on Chestnut street, on Wednesday afternoon, and after rummaging through a trunk and finding nothing to please him, he carried off a couple of pairs of pillow cases, which were lying on the table. An officer started in pursuit and arrested him with the stolen articles in his possession, but Mr. Smith refused to prosecute. The fellow having no visible means of support, the Mayor kindly sent him over to jail for twenty days.

Alleged Larceny.—Bridget McFarland made information before Mayor Drum, of Allegheny, yesterday against Mary Foster for larceny. Bridget alleges that she is employed as a domestic at a house on Church avenue where Mary formerly served, and that Mary came into to her room to get some clothing belonging to her. After she had gone away Bridget says she missed sixty dollars from the pocket of her dress which was hanging in the room, and as it was there before Mary came it is supposed that she abstracted it. The accused, who is a colored female, was arrested and will have a hearing this morning.

Discharged.

About six months ago officer Noble was seriously stabbed by Thomas Scanlon while endeavoring to arrest him, the circumstances of which were published in the GAZETTE at the time. Scanlon was tried for the offense and sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and the costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment of three months in the county jail. At the expiration of the term Scanlon was unable to pay the money, and was remanded back to jail for three months more, at the expiration of which time he was enabled to take the benefit of the insolvent laws, which secured his release from the institution yesterday.

Distressing Case—A Little Girl Drowned.

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock a distressing case of drowning occurred in the Monongahela river at Brownstown. the victim being a little girl named Mary Ent aged about six years. It seems the little girl was playing on some rafts at the foot of Brown street, in Brownstown, when she went too near the outer edge, lost her balance and fell into the river. Her screams attracted the attention of some persons in the vicinity, but before aid could reach her she was drowned. The deceased was a daughter of Michael Ent, residing in Brownstown, and had only been playing on the raft a short time when the accident occurred. Search was made for the body but up to nine o'clock last night it had not been recovered

Arrested on Suspicion.

Yesterday morning the Allegheny police arrested three boys on suspicion of having been concerned in the robbery of Hepple's store, on Chestnut street, of a considerable amount of money about a week ago, notice of which appeared in the GAZETTE at the time. The names of the boys are Moon, Faust and Smith. They reside in the vicinity of the store, and the first two it appears have been spending money rather freely, purchasing knives, pistols, &c., &c. Smith was not charged with being with the other two when the robbery was committed, but it was alleged that he was with them when the purchases were made. The boys had a hearing at the Mayor's office last evening, but nothing was elicted which would implicate them in the affair, and they were accordingly released.

Tenth Ward Vigilance Committee.

The Republican Vigilance Committee of the Tenth (formerly part of the Fifth) ward, consisting of Charles Beck, John H. Jones, Robert Graham, Dr. Henry Manchester, David Thompson, Andrew Lees, Wm. H. Rutledge, Wm. Brown, Wm. J. McCleary and David Wilson, met on Wednesday evening at the office of Dr. Manchester, No. 633 Penn street. William J. McCleary was called to the Chair, and Robert Graham acted as Secretary.

On motion, a committee of seven, composed of the following named gentlemen, were appointed to report the names of any other Republicans of the ward desirous of serving on the Vigilance Committee: Dr. Henry Manchester, Wm. Brown, Robert Graham, Andrew Lees, John H. Jones, Charles Beck and George Cromlish.

On motion, adjourned to meet at the same place on Saturday evening next, August 8th, at half-past seven o'clock.

A Youthful Parricide—Murder of a Father by a Lad Fourteen Years of Age.

A terrible affair occurred on Thursday, July 30th, in Greene county, which resulted in the death of a father from wounds received at the hands of his son, a lad about fourteen years of age. The circumstances of the case, as near as we could learn them, are as follows: A farmer named Thomas, living in Center township, Greene county, was correcting one of the children for some misdemeanor, when the wife, thinking the punishment too severe, interposed to save the child. The man becoming very angry at this interference turned on the woman and began to abuse her, and while in the act of choking her was noticed by the son, who drew out a pocket knife and going up to where the party were scuffling, he inflicted several severe gashes in the abdomen of his father. The injured man at once ceased from the strife, and a physician was sent for, who pronounced the injuries fatal.

The boy was taken into custody by the proper authorities, where he still remains. The general opinion of the community in which the affair occurred is favorable to the boy, who is represented as a quiet peaceable lad, but who it is thought became so excited at seeing his mother abused as to be induced to commit the act, without thinking of the consequences.

The Cattle Disease.

The excitement occasioned over the presence of the cattle pestilence in the East Liberty Stock Yards has subsided, and confidence in our butchers is being rapidly restored. In the Allegheny and Pittsburgh markets but little beef has been purchased this week, the heaviest orders coming from hotels to supply the tables for strangers. Our butchers generally kill cattle brought from markets contiguous to the city, but might be imposed upon with diseased foreign cattle. We believe that purchases can now be made with safety from any of our butchers, as they are as anxious to protect the public health as any other class of citizens. The Meat Inspector, Mr. Hosack, who is said by his friends to be a zealous public officer, who quietly works fourteen hours a day in the proper discharge of his duties, has at least redeemed himself fully from the charge made in the early part of the excitement of direlection in duty, and won the confidence of those first to censure him. The killing of a large number of cattle at the yards and the shipment East of the remainder clears Pittsburgh of the diseased animals and lessens the danger of this locality to a spread of the pestilence. The disease has not appeared at the Allegheny yards, as was rumored yesierday. We could not learn of any case of the disease outside the limits of the East Liberty stock yards.

A New Way to Collect Wages.

James Crane, so the story goes, has hit upon a new expedient to collect his debts; but it is a rather unsafe method if carried out on all occasions. James, it is said, was in the employ of Mr. James Carr, and had worked for him for some time, when he concluded to discharge himself, which he did, asking first for the wages due him. His employer told him that he could not get his money until the regular pay day. The allegation is that Crane felt aggrieved at this information, but to hurry matters he informed his employer, whom he met in the street a short time after, that if the money was not immediately forthcoming he would take it out of his hide, accompanying the threat with a proposition, to wit: that they should adjourn to some sequestered locality where both could have a fair chance. The proposition, as a whole, failed to meet with the approval of Mr. Carr, but he adopted the adjournment part of it and proceeded to the Mayor's office, where he lodged an information for surety of the peace against his late employé. Yesterday the police, after a long search, succeeded in capturing Crane, whom they conveyed to the lock-up, where he awaits a hearing.

That "Star Chamber."

Mayor Blackmore states that the order to keep the tombs closed to reporters only referred to Wednesday night, as several young boy burglars had been arrested and confined in a cell, and it was deemed prudent to keep the matter from the reporters. However, the order was only rigidly enforced against a few journals, as the full particulars of the arrest were published yesterday in a contemporary, and were merely hinted at in the GAZETTE, as we had no positive information on the subject. We are among those who have regarded the administration of Mayor Blackmore as a comparative success, but the adoption of the "Star Chamber" system at this late period would certainly wreck him as it has wrecked several of his predecessors. We do not claim admittance to the tombs as a right so much as a questionable courtesy, which should not be withheld from the reporter by either the Mayor or his Chief, as they should not be anxious to veil it in darkness or hide its occupants from the public gaze. When officials adopt the "Star Chamber" system, depend upon it, "there is something rotten in Denmark."

A Bit of a Scrimmage.

Two gentlemen, lately imported from the Emerald Isle, got into a heated discussion yesterday evening at their boarding house, on Penn street, Tenth ward, of which Mrs. McCarthy is the proprietress. From wordy logic they proceeded to the logic of fisticuffs, and for awhile battered each other in the house, but finding the theatre within too small a field for the display of their powers, they adjourned to the street front of the house and continued the argument. They had not been there long before a large crowd was attracted to the scene, some of whom manifested their approbation of the affair by urging on first one and then the other of the combatants. How long they would have continued in the work it is hard to tell, perhaps they would have "fought it out on this line if it had taken all summer," but for the interference of a couple of policemen, who captured both and conveyed them to the tombs, where they will have a hearing this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct.

U. S. Court—Judge M'Candless.

In the bankruptcy branch of this Court final discharges were granted and certificates awarded to Albert Conkle and Reuben S. Marsland, of Pittsburgh.

Petitions for discharge were filed by Benjamin S. Tripp, of Luzerne county; Frederick Krebbs, of Blair county; Joseph M'Fadden, of Lewiston, Mifflin county; Jackson D. Stoneroad, of Pittsburgh; Peter H. Hellen, of Uniontown, Fayette county, and Jacob C. Northrup, of Allegheny county.

In the matter of S. B. Moore, bankrupt, an application was filed asking permission to withdraw his petition for adjudication in bankruptcy, an arrangement having been effected with his creditors. A general meeting of the creditors of petitioner was ordered to be held on the 10th of September.

Washington and Jefferson College.

Anniversary Exercises—Re-union of the Literary Societies—Alumni Meeting—The Class of 1858—Address by Dr. John Hall, D.D.—Address before the Literary Societies—The President's Reception.

The anniversary exercises of Washington and Jefferson College commenced at the College building Thursday morning, August 5th, 1868.

The opening was the re-union of the Franklin and Philo Literary Societies, which took place at 9 A. M.

THE FRANKLIN.

The re-union of the Franklin was one of the most interesting which has taken place for a number of years, nearly every graduating class since 1824 being represented.

The meeting was organized by calling Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Steubenville, Ohio, to the Chair, and appointing Mr. Crowles Secretary.

No regular programme of exercises having been adopted, it was resolved that all who desired should be heard, and to that end the President called upon the classes commencing with the oldest, and a number of eloquent and interesting speeches were delivered.

Rev. Dr. Gibson, representing the graduating class of 1826, was the first gentleman to respond, and almost every class from that date to the present time was represented. The remarks of each speaker were enthusiastically received and applauded by the members of the Society. The meeting was highly interesting and entertaining, and will long be remembered by those who participated in it.

THE PHILO SOCIETY.

The Philo Reunion was a highly interesting affair and considerably more enthusiastic than the Franklin's. The meeting was called to order by the election of Rev. Mr. Donaldson, of Elder's Ridge, as Chairman, and appointing Mr. Collier Secretary. Like the former, the exercises were informal, and consisted in remarks from various members of the Society as called upon. Many good things were said, and quite a number of amusing incidents connected with the College experience of the different speakers related in a very interesting manner. The meeting, like that of the Franklin's, was a highly interesting one, and will be remembered with pleasure by all.

MEETING OF THE ALUMNI.

One of the many interesting entertainments during the anniversary was the meeting of the Alumni, which took place at 11 o'clock A. M. Thursday, in Senior Hall. The association was largely represented, there being over one hundred and fifty of the Alumni of the united institutions present.

The meeting was organized by calling Rev. Dr. Donaldson, of Elder's Ridge, to the chair, and appointing Rev. Mr. ——, of Allegheny, Secretary.

Rev. Dr. Gibson then inquired if any regular order of business had been decided upon, and if not, whether it would be in order for the Alumni to consider the question of the consolidation of Washington and Jefferson Colleges, the union of which on the present basis had been pronounced a failure, and also to consider as to where the proposed consolidated College should be located.

The Chairman replied that he was not informed of any regular order of business, and that the object of the meeting of the Alumni was "the good of the institution," which he thought would embrace the subject referred to.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Allison, a Committee of six from the Alumni of each institution was appointed to prepare a report with resolutions, expressing the feelings of the Alumni in relation to the consolidation of the Colleges.

The question was then discussed at considerable length by Rev. Drs. Gibbon, of Ohio, Cooper, of Philadelphia, and several others, all of whom agreed as to the propriety, or rather the necessity, of consolidation.

The meeting was a very interesting one, and notwithstanding the difference of opinion as to the location, was strictly harmonious.

The hour of twelve having arrived, the Alumni adjourned to meet at two o'clock.

STUDENTS' CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The Students' Christian Association, connected with the institution, comprises a large number of the most promising young men connected with the College, and in the language of the President, "is one of the most powerful agents for doing good connected with the institution." According to the programme, a meeting of this Association was to have been held immediately after the close of the Society reunions, but in consequence of the interest manifested in these meetings they were prolonged until eleven o'clock, the hour for the meeting of the Alumni thus occupying the time allotted to the Christian Association.

AFTERNOON EXERCISES—THE CLASS OF 1858.

The first exercise of the afternoon was the re-union of the Jefferson Graduating Class of 1858, which took place in Senior Hall, at one o'clock. Owing to some misunderstanding the attendance of members was very meagre, and after an informal meeting of those present, which, although small in numbers, was highly interesting and pleasant, they adjourned to meet Thursday, at 8 o'clock a. m.

THE ALUMNI AGAIN.

Pursuant to adjournment the Alumni reassembled again at two o'clock, and the question under discussion at the adjournment was again taken up.

Several gentlemen joined in the discussion, all, as at the previous meeting, agreeing in regard to consolidation, but no plan was suggested which would be likely to overcome the local feeling relative to the removal of the institution from either Washington or Canonsburg. The discussion was continued until three o'clock, the hour appointed for the address before the Students' Christian Association, when a recess was taken.

DR. HALL'S ADDRESS.

The address before the Students' Christian Association, which should have been delivered on Tuesday, as the speaker, Rev. John Hall, D.D., of New York, did not arrive, was postponed until Wednesday.

Long before the hour had arrived Providence Hall was filled with the youth, beauty and intelligence of the town and surrounding country. The speaker, escorted from the President's house, was conducted into the Hall. After the sweet sounds of music from one of the best choirs it has been our pleasure to listen to for a number of years, Dr. Hall was introduced to the audience. His address was one of those productions of genius, combining both power and eloquence, seldom heard on occasions of this kind, and its delivery occupied two hours. It commanded the most profound attention of the entire audience throughout. We regret exceedingly that the length of our report prevents us from giving even a synopsis of his remarks.

At the close of the address the choir sang the long meter doxology, after which the audience was dismissed.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

At six o'clock P. M., Wednesday, the reception of the President, Rev. Dr. Jonathan Edwards, took place at his beautiful residence. The affair was participated in by most of the Alumni, the Trustees, the students and many of the friends of the Institution, and it will be foremost among the pleasant recollections of their lives.

ANNIVERSARY ADDRESS.

At half past seven o'clock P. M., a large audience assembled in Providence Hall to hear the anniversary address before the Philo and Franklin Literary Societies, which was delivered by Rev. Charles Elliott, D. D., of Chicago.

A brass band from the city was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with excellent music, after which a fervent prayer was offered up by Rev. Dr. Beatty.

Dr. Edwards then introduced the speaker to the audience, who were highly entertained with a literary address requiring over an hour in its delivery. At the conclusion of the address the band again played, and the audience was then dismissed with the benediction by the chaplain.

THE ALUMNI SUPPER.

The great event of the occasion was the supper prepared by the ladies of the town for the Alumni of the Institution. At nine o'clock we repaired to "Prayer Hall," in which the supper was served, and there a sight presented itself worthy of admiration. The Hall was tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and appropriate mottos covered the walls. Extending diagonally across the room were two tables, reaching from corner to corner, leaving just sufficient passing room, and fairly groaning under the weight of the immense quantity of provisions with which they were loaded. We have attended many banquets in the city, but have seldom seen a table so bountifully supplied and at the same time arranged with such exquisite taste as was this one. By nine o'clock the guests had all assembled, numbering over two hundred, and were called to order by Dr. Edwards, at whose request Rev. Dr. Hall implored a blessing upon the repast. The ladies, who by the way were the most interesting and attentive to the task they had undertaken, busied themselves in distributing the rich viands among the hungry crowd. When all had been served, still leaving provision for a multitude, the meeting was called to order.

Thursday—Commencement Exercises.

Commencement day at Canonsburg brings with it an interest and excitement consequent upon no other occasion. There is no place in the Union, perhaps, where College exercises of this character are so largely attended or so much interest taken in them by the surrounding community, as at Washington and Jefferson Colleges. Every horse, mule and vehicle of whatever description, within a radius of from five to ten miles are brought into requisition, and everybody attends "Commencement," and the citizens of the pleasant little town, who have an inherent love for the College, which enjoys a world-wide reputation, are the most hospitable and liberal people we have ever met with. From the beginning to the close of the anniversary exercises their doors are thrown open, or, in other words, the "latch string is out" at every house in the village, and no matter how large the crowd all are entertained and kindly cared for.

At an early hour in the morning guests began to arrive, and by eight o'clock, there being a large number of visitors from a distance who arrived on Wednesday, the town was literally filled with people, yet all were provided for.

At half-past eight o'clock a procession, consisting of several classes of the College, the Alumni and the Faculty, formed in front of the College, and headed by an excellent band of music, marched through some of the principal streets and thence to Providence Hall, in the College building, where the Commencement exercises were held. The hall, which will comfortably seat about two thousand persons, was literally jammed and looked like a vast sea of human beings, yet not one-half the crowd could be accommodated. At nine o'clock the procession reached the Hall and with considerable difficulty reached their seats on the commodious stage, which had been reserved for them.

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

After the band had reached the position assigned it, and an impressive air was played, a most fervent prayer for the welfare of the young men who were about to graduate and for the future success of the institution was offered up, when we were again favored with music by the band.

SALUTATORY.

Mr. John M. French, of Canonsburg, who with Mr. D. J. McAdam, of Mansfield, Ohio, the valedictorian, was bracketed for the first honor, delivered the salutatory. The effort was an able one, and the speaker evinced an amount of knowledge and profound thought remarkable for one of his years.

Mr. T. B. Anderson, of Leechburg, Pa., followed,—subject, "Moon-Light," which he handled in a very able manner. Music then followed.

Next came an oration by Mr. Neville B. Cornings—subject, "Men for the Times," which evinced deep study in its preparation and admirable culture in its delivery.

Mr. T. Jeff. Duncan, of Brownsville, Pa., was next on the programme. Subject—"From Godfrey de Bouillon to Louis the Pious." Mr. Duncan in the preparation of his performance evinced a most thorough knowledge of history, and a command of language which does credit to himself and the institution at which both were acquired.

After more excellent music by the band the audience were favored with a strictly scientific discourse by Mr. S. B. Fisher, Washington, Pa.; subject, "On the Elevation of Water," in the handling of which the author evinced an almost perfect familiarity with the sciences.

Mr. E. S. Gans, of New Geneva, Pa., was next on the programme. Subject—"A True Rationalism."

The remaining performances were all excellent productions in their way and highly creditable to the performers.

The valedictory was especially good.

CANONSBURG, August 5, 1868.

This usually retired village has assumed to-day an aspect quite city like. The streets are filled with strangers, and the houses of the citizens are open for the entertainment of those attracted by the exercises of the literary anniversary. At nine o'clock the Philo and Franklin Societies met in their halls, when the Alumni, formerly in connection with them, enjoyed an opportunity of reviving old recollections. Among the memories of college life none are cherished more than those connected with the literary societies. The Alumni held their annual meeting, at which Dr. Donaldson presided, and Rev. James Allison acted as Secretary. Numerous addresses were made by graduates of both the old colleges, which have been merged in the united institution. An ardent attachment to their Alma Mater was expressed by all the speakers, and suggestions without number were offered as to what course the Board of Trustees ought to pursue. A series of resolutions were at length reported by a Committee appointed for that purpose, urging immediate consolidation as necessary to success, and pledging the acquiescence of the Alumni in whatever decision the Board might reach touching the location of the consolidated institution.

The address of Dr. Hall, late of Dublin, now of New York City, took place at three P. M. His theme was a Chapter of Modern Church History. The period passed under review was the eighteenth century, and his object was to portray the religious movement, for which it is memorable. He gave an exceedingly graphic sketch of the state of religion in the United Kingdom at the beginning of the century, and of the character and labors of Wesley, Whitfield and their co-workers, from which he deducted several important lessons, and incentives to duty, which he enforced upon the young men with great power. His manner is very engaging, and his style is remarkable for simplicity, directness and elegance. Long will the earnest words of the distinguished speaker ring in the ears of those who heard him with such delight this afternoon.

The address before the Literary Societies was delivered at 7½ P. M. by Dr. Charles Elliott, of the Northwestern Theological Seminary at Chicago. He announced as his subject, The Position of the Study of the Ancient Languages in a Course of Liberal Education. His treatment of the subject was able and satisfactory, and gave evidence of profound research. As it will doubtless be published, I forbear to give an outline of his argument.

The ladies of Canonsburg have prepared a sumptuous repast for the Alumni, over which they are now making merry, in one of the College halls. H.

Facts Worth Knowing About Sewing Machines.

A certain Sewing Machine Agent in this city represents that his company sold forty-three thousand three hundred of their noiseless machines last year.

We would like if he could furnish a list of three hundred sold in Pittsburgh and vicinity, and drop the forty-three thousand, and this would not amount to his share of the sales of that number.

His machine when running may not make as much noise as a threshing machine, and when standing still may be perfectly noiseless, but as to the amount sold we would like to see the documents.

He complains that the Weed has gained five hundred and twenty per cent., but by taking the amount published and the amount we intend publish, he can see that the Weed has not only gained what we claim for it, but is far in advance of any other machine in the market. Call on the Agent, R. H. Long. No 112 Grant street, and see for yourselves. This machine can be paid for in monthly installments.
